Examples

Roy of the Savoy

From photographing the Queen, Madonna, and Maradona, Duncan Raban has switched his focus to photographing the normal extraordinary people in the world. This is a day in a life of an 84-year-old called Roy.

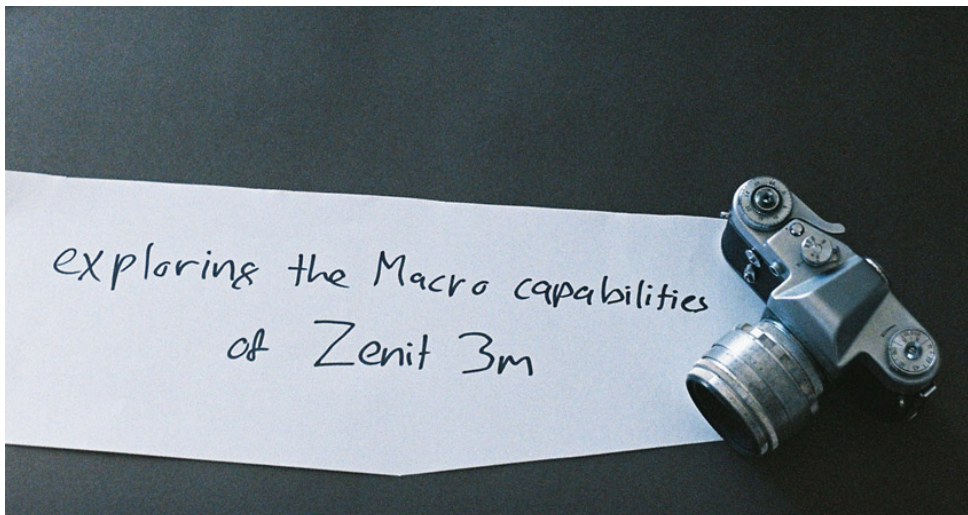

Working remotely

Confr's Kamil Roginski shares his best tips on organizing teams that work remotely, supported by years of experience organizing teams over three continents.

The KIWI Project

The KIWI Project by Adam and Laszlo is a photographic exploration of the macro capabilities of the fabled Zenit 3m with a humble kiwi as the subject.

Balance

Balance is a project by a Polish artist Maria Rutkowska. Set in Corbusier's Unité d'habitation, the project plays with the idea of a female body shamelessly exposed to the impact of nature.

Couture 2014

A lookbook by the incredible Dutch fashion designer JANTAMINIAU. Initially presented with Swipe during the Paris Haute Couture Week, it shows close up photos of JANTAMINIAU's intricate embroidery work.

Shapr

Shapr is a creative task by student Øyvind Nordbø for Hyper Island. Its goal is to get people to exercise more through the use of digital technology and simple design.

Ivan Castro

Ivan is a visual artist based in Madrid. The collection serves as a portfolio of his wonderful work for brands big and small, heavily influenced by rare organisms and pure geometry.

Analytics 101

Analytics can be a daunting task for a small startup with too many options. GoSquared put together this handy guide on what to track, how to measure, and what tools to use for best results.

Anu Ambasna

Some of the most recent work by Anu Ambasna, an illustrator based in Berlin and London. Her work explores the gross and the uncomfortable in a unique style.

Mobile Malaysia

A deep look into the internet trends in Malaysia by OnDevice research. With a high internet and mobile penetration, Malaysia is one of the most exciting markets for online businesses.

More

We're inspired every day by the creative uses of Swipe and the beautiful things people make and share. If you want to see more examples, head over to our examples page.